Copyright

The Copyright and Entertainment Group is well versed in prosecuting copyright applications before the U.S. Copyright Office for a variety of works ranging from published materials to intricate jewelry designs and computer programs.

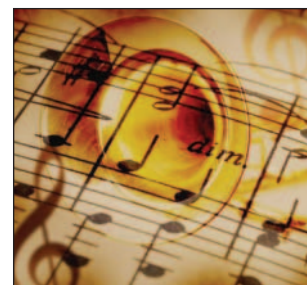

Our Group also counsels clients on a wide variety of matters and disputes concerning copyright ownership, duration, validity and infringement in the context of print media, advertising, national and international advertising campaigns, product packaging and labeling, motion pictures, performance rights, publishing, publication of photographs, fair use and the application of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act to Internet matters. We also advise clients regarding proactive strategies to enforce and protect their copyrights, utilizing full-term retention and U.S. Customs records.

Given our Group's expertise and familiarity with existing and emerging copyright law, and our firm's extensive network of foreign contacts, the Copyright and Entertainment Group provides clients with quality, cost-effective services.

Music Recording Industry - Recording Contracts, Publishing Contracts, Management Contracts, Etc.

The Copyright and Entertainment Group has extensive experience in drafting and negotiating music recording contracts, production company contracts, and management, publicity, publishing and sponsor-related contracts, for a wide variety of clients. Our Group has represented clients ranging from major record labels, production companies and motion-picture companies to recording artists, comedians and managers in the field of entertainment. The Copyright and Entertainment Group also has negotiated with major performance rights societies on behalf of its clients. Our clients include platinum and gold selling recording artists in the pop, R&B, jazz and rap genres.

Right of Publicity

The Copyright and Entertainment Group counsels clients on right of publicity and right to privacy matters in the commercial context. We have been successful in protecting our client's propriety rights and/or negotiating royalty-bearing licenses for our clients as well as in defending against right of publicity claims. Our group has represented both famous living individuals and the estates of deceased famous personalities.
